ACTIVITIES IN BOLOGNA

PIAZZA MAGGIORE

In the heart of Bologna you will find Piazza Maggiore, literally translated "big square." The entire square is surrounded by beautiful medieval buildings, cozy streets and restaurants where you can enjoy delicious food. The highlight is the Neptune Fountain that adorns the square.

THE TWO TOWERS

Bologna used to be the city of towers. Most of the towers have now been demolished, but the two gigantic towers Torre Garisenda and Torre Degli Asinelli are still there and are the symbol of Bologna. Did you know that the Torre Garisena is more leaning than the Tower of Pisa? From the top you have a view over the city.

BASILICA OF SAN PETRONIO

Located on Piazza Maggiore, stands the remarkable Basilica di San Petronio, a pivotal and expansive church within Bologna. Spanning 132 meters in length and 66 meters in width, it ranks as the world's tenth-largest church.

ARCHAEOLOGICAL MUSEUM

Housed within a historical structure once functioning as a hospice, the museum showcases treasures spanning Etruscan, Greek, and Egyptian eras. The renowned Egyptian exhibit stands as one of Europe's finest, while the impressive assortment of Roman artifacts also captivates visitors.

FROM CASARI

Italian | €€€ | Lunch, Dinner

Near Piazza Maggiore, nestled in Bologna's historic core, lies "Da Cesari" restaurant. For over a century, it has been serving authentic Romagna cuisine. Exclusively using ingredients from the Umberto Cesari farm, this family-owned eatery exudes a welcoming, cozy ambiance with its rustic décor and furnishings.

VIA CON ME

Italian | €€-€€€ | Lunch, Dinner

Via Con Me, nestled in the Mercato delle Erbe area, offers a warm dining experience. Their menu regularly evolves, relying on seasonal produce sourced from the neighboring market. The curated wine selection predominantly showcases Italian wines, carefully chosen by sommeliers Roberta and Lorenzo.

CAMERA CON VISTA

Italian | €€€ | Lunch, Dinner

On Piazza Santo Stefano you will find Camera con Vista, a restaurant and bar located in a historic building. Chef Gabriele De Santis combines classic French flavors with the authentic flavors of Bolognese cuisine. Everything has been thought through: the antique interior, the unique dishes and especially the cocktails, created by bartender Davide de Rose. Highly recommended, for example, is the La Grande Bellezza: champagne, cognac and chambord.

TRATTORIA DA ME

Italian | €€ | Menu | Reserve | Opening hours | Route

Nestled slightly away from Bologna's central hub, Trattoria da Me is a hidden gem. While unassuming, it's a dining spot worth exploring to delve into Italian culinary traditions. Their standout dish, highly recommended, is the specialty ice cream crafted from three distinct cheeses: parmigiano, taleggio, and bergade.

YOSHI

Japanese | €€€ | Lunch, Dinner

Craving something other than fresh pasta? Yoshi offers delectable Japanese cuisine skillfully crafted by sushi chefs using the finest ingredients. It's an ideal spot for a romantic dinner or a lively evening among friends, boasting a diverse menu with a wide array of choices.

BONELLI BURGERS

American | €€ | Menu | Reserve | Opening hours | Route

Laura and Geremilla always loved to travel. When they came to the United States, they fell in love with American food. That's when they came up with the idea of opening a hamburger restaurant at home in Bologna. Freshly sourced from the butcher and local markets, both the meat and vegetables maintain high quality. Despite a limited selection, the dishes are certainly worth trying.
