ABOUT CIRCUIT DE MONACO

ABOUT THE CIRCUIT

The Circuit de Monaco is 3,337 meters long and has 18 corners. Overtaking on the Monaco Circuit is very difficult. The track is not made for current Formula 1 cars.

The circuit is so narrow and that is why it is also called one of the most difficult races of the year. The 2003 race even had no overtaking moments at all. The most famous point of the circuit is the Grand Hotel Hairpin. The hairpin bend is the slowest bend in the entire Formula 1 season.

Record winner of Monaco is Ayrton Senna. He won the race no fewer than six times between 1987 and 1993. After him come Michael Schumacher and Graham Hill, each with five victories.

HOW DO I GET TO THE CIRCUIT?

The best way to get to the Monaco Circuit varies from where you stay. In general there are many trains to Monaco. The train station is located on the Hill behind the Sainte Devote bend. It is easy to find your spots as everything is well marked and there are signs everywhere.

From Nice and Ventimiglia it is about 20 minutes by train to Monte Carlo. We recommend to buy a ticket in advance.
