VISIT A BATHHOUSE

Budapest has gained renown for its array of thermal bathhouses, with the Széchenyi Bathhouse standing out as the most renowned. This beloved facility boasts eighteen baths, including three outdoor ones. Alongside Széchenyi, other notable bathhouses include Gellért, Rudas, and Lukács, among many others available to visitors.

THE FISHING BASTION

Budapest boasts the captivating beauty of the Fisherman's Bastion, a remarkable site adorned with white stone walls, staircases, towers, and arcades. This attraction offers a stunning panoramic view of the city. Accessing the Fisherman's Bastion is complimentary, allowing visitors to enjoy it at any hour of the day.

MARKET HALL BUDAPEST

Situated in the Pest district, the Great Market Hall resembles an aged station, boasting a massive clock and stunning windows on its exterior. Upon entering, you'll encounter an abundance of fresh produce, regional items, and souvenirs. Recognized as Europe's most exquisite market and even hailed as the world's most beautiful market by CNN, it's a treasure trove of diverse offerings.

BOAT TRIP ON THE DANUBE

Experiencing Budapest in a unique manner involves taking to the waters via a boat. For instance, you have the option to reserve a boat tour along the iconic Danube River, which meanders through the heart of the city. This tour includes a stop at Margaret Island, granting you an hour and a half to leisurely explore this captivating island at your own pace.

THE SYNAGOGUE

Budapest, the capital of Hungary, houses Europe's largest synagogue and the world's second-largest. Adjacent to this significant landmark is the Jewish Historical Museum, offering extensive insights into the city's Jewish history. Additionally, there's a memorial park nearby, dedicated to honoring victims of anti-Semitic violence.

THE PARLIAMENT OF BUDAPEST

When strolling along the Danube, this structure instantly captures your attention. Its striking exterior is matched by an equally remarkable interior. Due to a daily visitor limit, securing reservations is essential if you're keen on exploring the Parliament Building during your visit.

HEROES SQUARE

Heroes' Square stands as a renowned landmark and ranks among Budapest's most frequented squares. The focal point is the Millennium Monument, featuring a lofty column crowned by Archangel Gabriel, with the Seven Leaders of the Magyars positioned in front. This site holds UNESCO World Heritage status.

GET TO GELLÉRTBERG

At 235 meters tall, this summit claims the title of Budapest's highest point, towering above the capital's skyline. It offers a stunning vantage point to admire the panoramic beauty, providing views encompassing both Buda and Pest. Additionally, this hill holds UNESCO World Heritage recognition.
