- ✓ The circuit does NOT allow the selection of row and seat numbers.
- ✓ Tickets for children are available at a significant discount.
- ✓ All grandstands have numbered seats for all three days of the event (Friday to Sunday).
- ✓ Tickets for Sunday only are also available with a small discount. This is in comparison to a three-day ticket.

- ✓ All grandstands and General Admission areas have access to large TV screens.
- ✓ The Main grandstand and the North grandstands are covered, permanent structures. The remaining grandstands are temporary and uncovered.

3-CORNER GRANDSTANDS

The three-corner grandstand tickets are a good choice for first time travellers. This is because you can watch the action from a different grandstand every day. Below, we have listed the different options and where you will be seated every day of the race weekend:

- ✓ Platinum: Friday = Red Bull (H) / Saturday = Red Bull (A) / Sunday = Start-Finish
- ✓ Gold: Friday = Start-Finish / Saturday = Red Bull (H) / Sunday = Red Bull (A)
- ✓ Silver: Friday = Red Bull (A) / Saturday = Start-Finish / Sunday = Red Bull (H)

MAIN GRANDSTAND (START-FINISH MAIN GRANDSTAND)

There are two categories of tickets on the large, permanent Start-Finish grandstand. The more expensive seats are in the middle of the grandstand. They enjoy a better view of the pits (sections D, E, F, G, H, I, J, K, L, M, N), while the pricing is cheaper sections on both sides of the stand (A, B, C, O).

Some higher seats give you a panoramic view of the entire circuit. A good choice for pit action and the start/finish of the race. If you want to see more action on the circuit, opt for the Red Bull or Steiermark grandstand.

STEIERMARK GRANDSTAND

Tickets for this grandstand are rightfully the most expensive at the Red Bull Ring. From this grandstand, you have an excellent view of the first corner. Plus, you will have great panoramic view of large parts of the circuit. It is a very unique view where you can follow duels across a large part of the track during the race!

The grandstand (just like the Red Bull stand) is also close to the Fan Zone. Here's the best catering, plus merchandise, concerts, and the F1 Legends Parade. The downside is that the grandstand is uncovered. It is open to the elements which is unusual for F1 tickets in this price range.

Nevertheless, it is one of our favourite ticket options alongside the Red Bull Grandstand Section A.

RED BULL GRANDSTAND

This rather large grandstand is located between turns 1 and 3. It has a reasonably panoramic view over a large part of the circuit. The most expensive seats are in sections A and B. These are closest to turn 1.

Tickets then get cheaper to section K, which is quite far from turn 1 towards turn 2. The grandstand goes on to section P. It has limited viewing angles and panoramic views. From the middle sections FGHI, you will have good views of the inner circuit turns 4-5.

TURN 3 GRANDSTAND

This grandstand is situated at turn 3. It is the highest elevation on the Austrian circuit. Here, you will have a superb panoramic view of a significant portion of the track. Recognized as a hotspot for overtaking manoeuvres at the Red Bull Ring, turn 3 offers an exciting perspective.

Equipped with a TV screen, you will not miss any of the race's thrilling moments. These tickets deliver excellent value, despite not being the priciest choice. This is due to the impressive panoramic views at a well-known location to overtake.

TURN 8 GRANDSTANDS

The grandstand at turn 8 is one of the more recent additions to the Red Bull Ring circuit. This turn quickly follows the well-known Red Bull Stand on the circuit. In terms of value for money, the grandstand at turn 8 is one of the more affordable options at the Red Bull Ring.

TURN 9 GRANDSTAND

The grandstand at turn 9 is also one of the more recent additions to the circuit in Austria. From here, you can enjoy an excellent view of turns 9 and 10, both known as two of the fastest turns on the Red Bull Ring.

Additionally, you will have a good view of the entrance to the pit lane. This allows you to see the cars enter the pit lane among the first. A large television screen at this grandstand ensures that you do not miss any of the racing action. Tickets for grandstand 9 are a relatively affordable option at the Red Bull Ring.

TURN 10 GRANDSTAND

Situated in the final corner, Turn 10 offers the final grandstand on the Red Bull Ring circuit. From this grandstand, you have a backview of the start-finish section of the circuit. A television screen ensures that you do not miss any of the race action elsewhere on the track. Moreover, the price of this grandstand is one of the most affordable options for Formula 1 in Austria.

GRANDSTAND SCHÖNBERG

The Grandstand Schönberg is between turns 3 and 4. It has a great view of both turns. This grandstand gives you a double chance to see overtaking moves. You will have the chance to see it in both turn 3 and 4.

Thanks to a large TV screen, you will stay fully informed about the race action on the Red Bull Ring circuit. Furthermore, tickets for the Schönberg grandstand are also relatively affordable.

GENERAL ADMISSION

The general admission areas of the Red Bull Ring offer excellent viewing opportunities. The areas on the hill at the top of the circuit provide a panoramic view of large parts of the circuit. Besides this, there are multiple TV screens showing the action.

Make sure to check out the view from turn 3, where the cars come down hill from T3. On the outside of turn 2 and around turn 6 is also a great spot to watch the action from general admission.

Closer to the start/finish, there is also an exceptional view of the entrance to turn 9. Here, the cars are truly tested to the limit. The outside of the last turn (turn 10) is also a great place to watch the action.

The circuit offers plenty of space for all general admission areas. This is due to the immensely large hilly terrain around the track. Considering the low prices for general admission places, this is one of the best races to attend. Especially since it is the home race of Max Verstappen's racing team.
