01. TICKET TIPS

To help you select the right tickets and get you well prepared for your trip to the Brazilian Grand Prix, we have compiled a few ticket tips:

You are guaranteed to sit together if you order tickets for the same grandstand, for the same days in one order.

There is no discount for children. Children between 5 and 12 years old can only access the circuit in the presence of an adult. Please note: children must also have a ticket.

There are plenty of food and beverage outlets on the circuit. A special pass is used on the circuit, which you can use to make purchases. This pass is available on the track.

Children under the age of 5 are not admitted to the circuit.

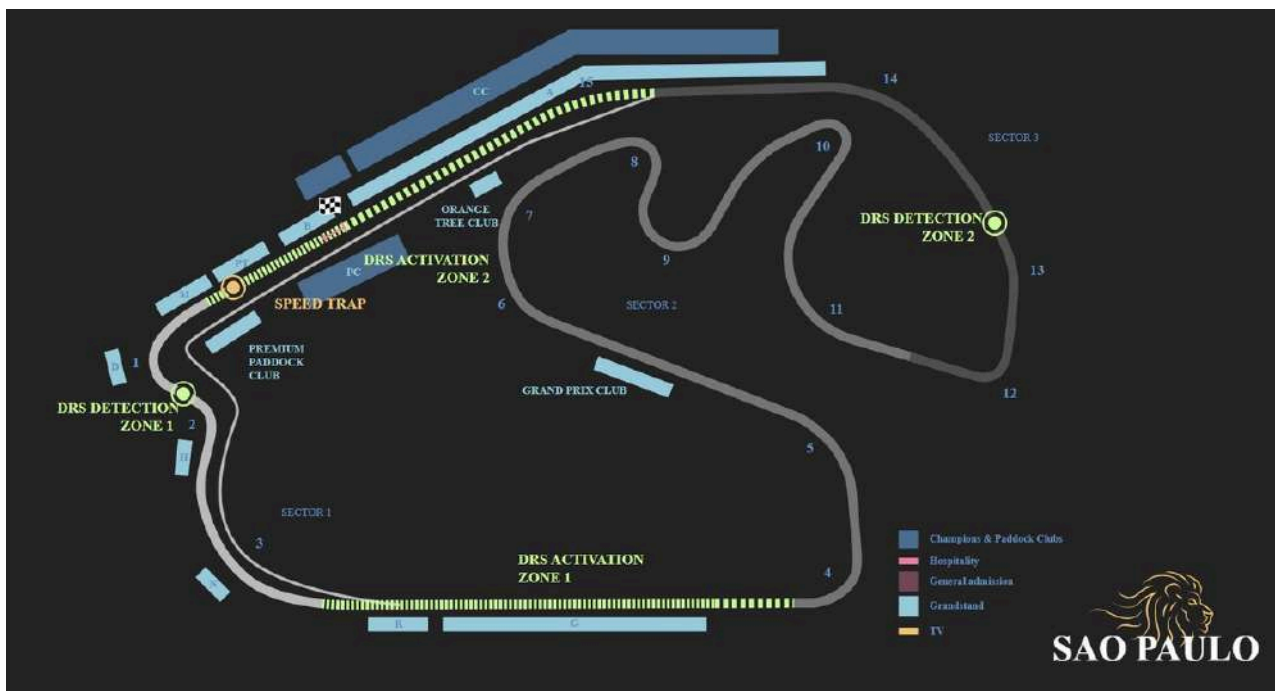

All grandstands have access to large TV screens.

02. GRANDSTAND TICKET TYPES

Below you will be able to find an overview of the different types of tickets which are available at the Grand Prix in Brazil. Along with this you can find information on the views that the different tickets offer and if it is worth the price you pay for it.

GRANDSTANDS

GRANDSTAND G

The most budget friendly grandstand option is Grandstand G (still labeled as Grandstand Q on the map) therefore, it is a suitable choice for those on a relatively modest budget. The grandstand overlooks the straight between turns 3 and 4. It offers a prime vantage point for witnessing numerous overtakes. It's fantastic to immerse yourself in the enthusiastic atmosphere of Brazilian fans.

GRANDSTAND A

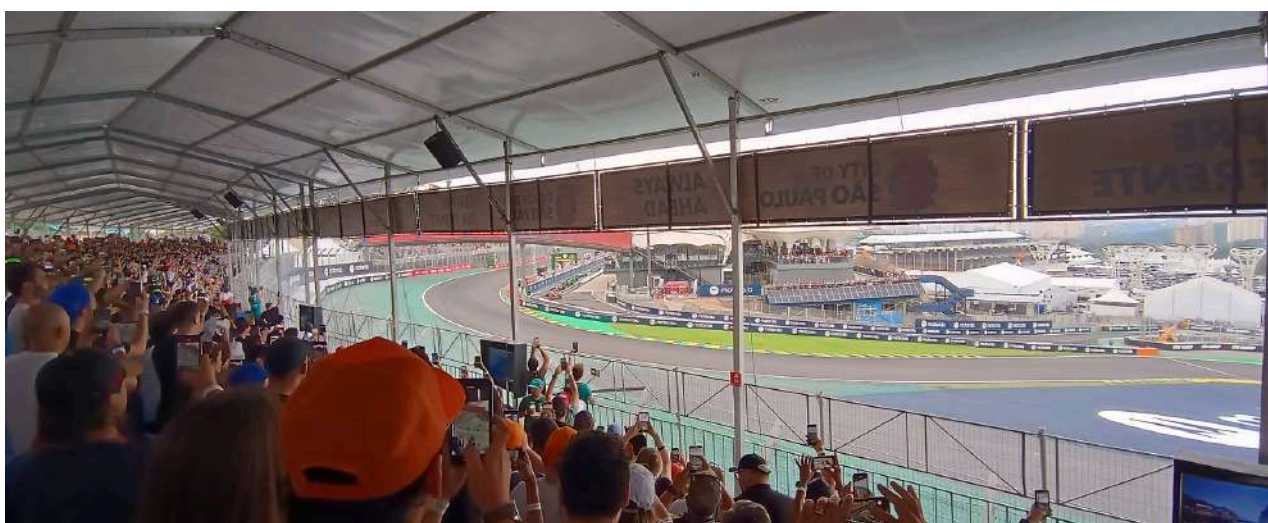

Grandstand A stands out as an exceptional choice. You will have a good view of the third sector of the circuit so you will receive much worth for your money. Hence, this is great for individuals with budget constraints.

GRANDSTAND M

Grandstand M is located at the end of the straight and provides a good view of the pit lane and start-finish. You can expect thrilling overtaking maneuvers in the Senna S. Is your budget slightly more flexible? Then, Grandstand M is our recommended top pick.

GRANDSTAND B

Grandstand B is also located along the straight at the start-finish. It is relatively expensive, even though snacks and drinks are most of the years included. Please note: we are awaiting the confirmation for 2025. Even so, it remains an excellent choice for a prime view of start-finish and pit stops. However, for a focus on on-track action, Grandstand M is advised.

GRANDSTAND R

Grandstand R is positioned after turn 3. It offers an ideal perspective for observing on-track action, including a view of the Senna S. While it comes at a higher cost than the neighboring Grandstand G, the added view does contribute to its price.

GRANDSTAND D

Grandstand D lies at turn 1. Here, you will have a spectacular view of the race's start. This grandstand promises a high level of on-track excitement. That is due to the frequent overtakes that can happen here. As the most expensive grandstand at the circuit, it is a worthwhile investment if you can afford it.

GRANDSTAND H

Grandstand H is located at turn 2 (Senna S). It provides a clear view of turns 2 and 3, offering excellent value for its price. Therefore we highly recommend this Grandstand!

GRANDSTAND N

Grandstand N lies on the inside of turn 3 between grandstands H and R. It offers a nice view. It does provide less coverage than grandstand H. But it is still better than grandstand R. This grandstand is an exceptional choice for its price. And we strongly recommend it!

View from Grandstand H

GRANDSTAND PT

Grandstand PT is nestled between Grandstand B and Grandstand M. It offers a dual advantage with a good view of start-finish and turn 1. Unfortunately, PT is one of the pricier grandstands on the São Paulo circuit. Looking at the price-quality ratio, we find grandstand M a better alternative.
